I. Read the text about Charlie Chaplin’s early life and decide whether the statements below are true (T) or false (F). (6 p)

CHARLIE CHAPLIN’S EARLY LIFE

He was believed to have been born on April 16, 1889. There is some doubt whether April 16 is actually his birthday, and it is possible he was not born in 1889. There is also uncertainty about his birthplace: London or Fontainebleau, France. There is no doubt, however, as to his parentage: he was born to Charles Chaplin, Sr. and Hannah Harriette Hill (aka Lily Harley on stage), both Music Hall entertainers. His parents separated soon after his birth, leaving him in the care of his increasingly unstable mother.

In 1896, Chaplin’s mother was unable to find work; Charlie and his older half-brother Sydney Chaplin had to be left in the workhouse at Lambeth, moving after several weeks to Hanwell School for Orphans and Destitute Children. His father died an alcoholic when Charlie was 12, and his mother suffered a mental breakdown, and was eventually admitted temporarily to the Cane Hill Asylum at Coulsdon (near Croydon). She died in 1928 in the United States, two years after coming to the States to live with Chaplin, by then a commercial success.

Charlie first took to the stage when, aged five, he performed in Music Hall in 1894, standing in for his mother. As a child, he was confined to a bed for weeks due to a serious illness, and, at night, his mother would sit at the window and act out what was going on outside. In 1900, aged 11, his brother helped him get the role of a comic cat in the pantomime Cinderella at the London Hippodrome. In 1903 he appeared in 'Jim, A Romance of Cockayne', followed by his first regular job, as the newspaper boy Billy in Sherlock Holmes, a part he played into 1906. This was followed by Casey’s 'Court Circus' variety show, and, the following year, he became a clown in Fred Karno’s 'Fun Factory' slapstick comedy company.

According to immigration records, he arrived in the United States with the Karno troupe on October 2, 1912. In the Karno Company was Arthur Stanley Jefferson, who would later become known as Stan Laurel. Chaplin and Laurel shared a room in a boarding house. Stan Laurel returned to England but Chaplin remained in the United States. Chaplin’s act was seen by film producer Mack Sennett, who hired him for his studio, the Keystone Film Company.

II. Read about a newly-wed couple, Richard and Victoria. Decide whether the statements below are true (T) or false (F). (10 p)

JUST MARRIED

Considering their wedding cost over $20,000 and took a year and a half to organise, you would be surprised to hear that Richard and Victoria Hammond now intend to forget it. Well, almost.

‘It was a wonderful wedding, an unbelievable day,’ says Victoria. ‘But we have so much we want to do together now, we are both looking to the future.’ Her husband, banker and amateur race driver Richard, agrees. ‘Both our minds are now fixed firmly on the future. I’ll never forget our wedding ceremony or the reception we had at a cliff-side hotel afterwards, but there’s so much we want, so many hopes. Our marriage is so much more important than the wedding.’

‘At the moment, we are still living with our parents,’ explains Victoria, ‘so our first wish is to find our own place. We intend to start looking for a new house with all the modern conveniences in the suburbs in the new year.’ Both Victoria and husband Richard have a lot of siblings. Do they intend to add to the extended Hammond family? ‘We plan on having two or three children ourselves,’ Richard tells me. ‘Victoria is just wonderful with children and I can get 3 years paternity leave from my work, which is just perfect.’

The young couple has just returned from a two-week honeymoon spent in an authentic Scottish castle. Both the newly-weds are big travel lovers and Richard hopes this will continue. ‘I would like to go travelling as much as possible together. Travelling with someone else is such a sharing experience. I think it’s sad to experience all the wonderful places in the world and have no-one else there.’ Victoria also has another great travel ambition that she might have to do alone. ‘I have always been fascinated by safari and my real wish is to go on safari. Richard has no interest in wildlife though.’

And what about the marriage itself? In a world with such a high divorce rate, how do Richard and Victoria hope to avoid all the problems that beset so many other couples? Richard explains thoughtfully that ‘our ambition is to always talk to each other. If you stop communicating, what chance do you have?’ His wife goes along with that completely. ‘I hope that we can speak about things, but also not expect everything to be easy. I think many people expect the wedding to be the end of getting to know each other. I think it’s the start.’

2. They got married in a dramatic location. _____

SNAKE BITES BOY

Three-year-old Teddy Lasry was napping yesterday in his cowboy outfit at his family's Fifth Ave. apartment when he shot up in bed screaming. A 3-foot-long black-and-white snake was coiled around his left arm and had just bitten his pinky.

'The baby-sitter freaked out,' said Teddy's father, David Lasry, who along with his wife, Evelyn, was at work when the reptile showed up about 4 p.m.

The horrified nanny called 911 and the building's doorman. The doorman and two cable TV workers helped pry the snake off the boy's arm and stow it in a garbage bag, Lasry said.

Police rushed Teddy to Mount Sinai Medical Center, where his parents said he spent two hours attached to a heart monitor as a precaution in case the snake was poisonous.

It wasn't. Experts at the snakebite treatment center at Jacobi Medical Center in the Bronx, where cops took the critter, determined it was non-venomous California king snake.

But how did it end up in Teddy's bed? A little sleuthing determined that the serpent had escaped two weeks ago from its cage in the apartment of a doctor whose family lives four floors below the Lasrys. The apologetic owner said his son's pet snake likely travelled up the radiator pipes and into his neighbour's apartment.

'It's a very docile, very harmless snake', he said. 'It's handled by our family all the time.'

Lasry, 42, a fine arts publisher, said he believed the pet was simply hungry after two weeks of cruising. Teddy's mother, Evelyn Lasry, 37, said her son seems to have gotten over his fright by thinking of himself as a hero cowboy as he rode in the back of the police cruiser to the hospital.

'I told Teddy he is a pretty snake, a nice pet snake who got out of his cage,' Evelyn Lasry said. 'But he asked, 'Why did he bite my finger, Mamma?' And I said, 'Because he saw that you are a big boy, Teddy, in your cowboy outfit and he got scared.'
